

RESOLUTION OF SUPPORT FOR INDIANA TO OBSERVE THE CENTRAL TIME ZONE

Whereas, excessive morning darkness in Indiana’s Eastern Time counties can be a safety hazard for students waiting for school buses, walking, and driving to school in morning darkness; and

Whereas, on Central Time, Indiana’s latest sunrise would be approximately 7:15 AM and the majority of travel to and from school would occur in sunlight; and

Whereas, an extra hour of morning sunlight would likely reduce morning weather delays; and

Whereas, Indiana’s multiple time zones cause scheduling difficulties for schools and families; and

Whereas, in Indiana, Central Time’s sunlight schedule benefits learning readiness;

Now, therefore, be it resolved that the _____ Board supports observing Central Standard Time in Indiana during the winter months and Central Daylight Time during the rest of the year.
